DeVito in New Job at Dow Plant

Carl DeVito has been named distribution services superintendent of the Dow Chemical Company's Torrance plant, it was announced here by A. L. Holiday, plant manager.

Holiday said DeVito will be in charge of the plant's production control, inventory management, traffic and shipping scheduling, communications, and liaison with Dow sales offices.

DeVito, 37, lives at 3237 Deluna Drive in Palos Verdes. He is a native of Pittsburg, Calif., and attended Diablo Valley College and University of California at Berkeley.

He joined Dow's Western Division in 1947 at Pittsburg and handled traffic and distribution assignments at the Pittsburg plant as an administrative assistant to the plant manager.

Dow's Torrance plant at 305 Crenshaw Blvd., is one of the west's largest producers of plastics.

After Special Work Handicapped Students Return to Classrooms

Spending the year in a small class geared toward their special needs has enabled 19 students with neurological handicaps or behavior problems to return to regular classrooms next fall. The students were part of a group of 137 students of normal intelligence who were previously unable to keep up with their classmates.

As a result of participating in special instruction classes, they have not only improved behavior, but have made tremendous academic strides, according to a recent report to the Board of Education.

Series of Meetings To Begin

Dr. J. Edwin Orr, popular Irish speaker and writer, will begin a series of meetings at the First Baptist Church of Torrance this morning at the 9:15 and 10:45 worship services.

Dr. Orr will speak at the 7 o'clock evening service today and at 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday each week, according to the Rev. Robert H. Coburn, pastor of the church.

He also will speak at morning and evening services next Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Coburn said.

Dr. Orr, who served in the Air Force in World War II, has traveled extensively throughout the world, visiting some 150 countries and about two-thirds of the major cities in the world. He has traveled on the Sahara Desert, the Amazon River, and in the Himalayas.

He is co-founder of the Hollywood Christian Group and is the author of numerous books which have been translated into a dozen languages. He serves as chaplain at large of the Mission to Academic Community of International Christian Leadership.

Nursery care will be provided at the church for all services, according to the Rev. Mr. Coburn. The church is located at 2118 W. Carson St.

Washburns Will Sing At Church

The Washburn Family Gospel Singers will be special guests this evening at 7 at the Harbor Church, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., Harbor City.

The group is well known throughout the South for its presentation of gospel songs, according to the Rev. Robert Pruet, pastor of the church.

Members of the group include James Washburn, his son, John, and his three daughters, Ellen, Nina, and Sue.

The Rev. Mr. Pruet, who will preach at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services, has extended an invitation to all area residents to attend the services.

Aide Class Will Begin In August

Applications for enrollment in a new "Family Aide" class are now being accepted from mature men and women by the Torrance office of the California Employment Service, 1016 Sartori Ave.

Classes, taught by Red Cross personnel, will be given in August. Students will be instructed in methods of caring for the needs of the elderly convalescent and incapacitated persons, as well as in ways to assist younger families in emergency situations in the home.

Red Cross instructors will cover such subjects as improvised equipment for use in the home and emergency procedures in case of accidents. One of the six sessions will include a discussion of physiological and emotional changes involved in the aging process.

Graduates of the course will be certified for private employment wherever the need exists for their services. The Department of Employment will refer graduates to jobs, according to Mrs. June Roper, manager of the Torrance office. Interested persons should contact the Torrance office as soon as possible, Mrs. Roper said, by calling 328-2611 and asking for the family aide desk. An appointment for an interview will be arranged.

Bicycle Stolen

A 7-year-old Harbor City boy who rode his bicycle to Torrance Park Friday afternoon is without wheels today. Jack McDonald, 24264 Senator Ave., said he left his bicycle in the park found it missing when he returned about 4 p.m. The bicycle is valued at $50.
